

CENTER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS
ADVOCACY
RESPONSIBILITIES

- Research and compile resources, programmes, and services available to victims and survivors, including but not limited to medical, psychological, educational, and legal services.
- Establish and maintain connections with service providers, organizations, and support networks to stay updated on available resources.
- Develop a comprehensive directory that details the support options available, including eligibility criteria, application processes, and contact information.
- Work closely with our team to assist in matching victims and survivors with the most appropriate support based on their individual needs and circumstances.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM US:

A dynamic team that will welcome you with open arms and support you in all challenges, while providing varied tasks, personal responsibility, and development opportunities. Plus the opportunity to make a meaningful impact on the lives of individuals affected by human rights violations and abuses.

TO APPLY:

Victim and Survivor Support Researcher

LOCATION & DESCRIPTION

LOCATION

REMOTE

DESCRIPTION

We are seeking compassionate volunteers to join our team as Victim and Survivor Support Researchers. In this role, you will play a crucial part in researching and connecting victims and survivors of human rights abuses and other violations with a wide range of support options, helping them access services they need to thrive and rebuild.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Passion for supporting victims and survivors.
- Experience in social services, or a related field, an asset.
- Sensitivity and understanding of issues related to trauma.
- Excellent communication skills, both written and verbal.
- Strong research and organizational skills.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.

Please send your CV to info@cfhra.org.